IT in Recovery

Marvin Wolgast - IT Director at Foundations Recovery Network

Our June program will be presented by Marvin Wolgast, IT Director at Foundations Recovery Network, running state-of-the-art inpatient treatment facilities across the country dedicated to treating both the mind and body for all disorders, earning countless awards and honors for effective client-driven outcomes that preserve the dignity of our clients and improve their quality of life.

Marvin's skills include leadership and management experience at Fortune 100 and smaller companies. Demonstrated ability in analyzing situations to develop the strategy, plans and procedures that improve productivity and reduce costs. Profit and loss managerial experience. Particular strengths in strategic planning, project management, and operational performance, overcoming challenges and delivering results. Leading and implementing change. Problem Solving. Cross-functional coordination. Strategic Planning and Project Management. Six Sigma Green Belt.

Prior to Foundations Recovery Network Marvin has served as;

-Advisor with ProVault; providing strategic advice regarding the growth and development of a specialized SaaS company.
- Senior Project Manager with Deloitte; providing expert level project management for multiple strategic projects across functional and technical units. Managed Agile/Scrum development for proprietary software systems. Developed and shared knowledge with peers and project team members related to agile/scrum processes during process transition to improve project quality, reporting, and efficiency. Conducted meetings, provided reports and executive updates for project portfolio.

-IT Director with PharmMD; overseeing IT operations for a startup SaaS company to include software development, infrastructure management, and service management. Supervised business continuity and disaster recovery planning and distributed agile development team. Implemented wireless upgrade to improve network security and new outbound call queuing service rollout. Supervised internal IT support team initiating the updating of the network map and inventory of software and hardware assets. Provided support using distributed virtual teams (Github and Pivotal) and cloud infrastructure (Amazon and Chef).
