Top 10 Websites/Apps

Tom Clark - Supervisor, Online Digital Support, Lifeway Christian Resources

Our May program is a presentation on using free apps on your computer or mobile devices to maximize your productivity and efficiency in your business and everyday life. You may be aware of, and use, some computer apps already, but probably not all that are available. Our speaker will give us a brief tutorial on the "Top 10 Websites/Apps."

Our speaker will be Scott Maulsby who, by all accounts, is a knowledgeable and entertaining presenter. Scott is the owner of Experimac of Mt. Juliet which is the Tennessee area authority on Apple products repairs and trade-ins. They offer a wide selection of refurbished desktop and laptop Apple Macintosh computers and devices.

Our May program will not be a sales pitch for Apple products, but will be a discussion on how to better use the free apps.

Scott has an interesting background. In addition to Experimac of Mt. Juliet, he is a Licensed Agent for US Health Advisor, and an Independent Distributer for both Advocare and SendOutCards. He has also been a co-manager for Walmart.

Scott has a B.S. degree in Industrial Systems Engineering from Virginia Tech. He and his family live in the Lebanon area. They have five children which includes three toddlers at home. They have been in the Nashville area two years, after spending ten years in Florida. When not chasing the children, Scott is at the gym and was an Ironman Finisher.

This should be an interesting and informative presentation on using the best available apps on our computers and mobile devices.
