Agile Transformation: Breaking Through Charles Cain - Cain Consulting

On August 9th 2018 we will be treated to a presentation by Charles Cain of Cain Consulting. Ever hear of an Agile transformation stall or even fail? Probably. It's quite common. This month we will learn the typical barriers that need to be overcome to make agile transformations phenomenally successful. Charles will provide a strategy for enhancing not only corporate performance but also your performance both as a workplace professional and as a private individual.

Charles via his consultancy provides a wide range of coaching for executives, organizations adopting agile and career coaching. Charles also offers project management expertise having amassed 29 years of progressive project management experience.

Prior to consulting Charles worked for Viacom in several roles such as Project director, agile coach and scrum master. Prior to Charles's time at Viacom he worked at Gaylord Entertainment helping to manage the build out of their websites for a variety of purposes.

Charles has an impressive set of academic and professional credentials having graduated from Trevecca Nazarene University with BA in Management and HR. Charles has also acquired many coaching and agile certifications during his extensive career.

Charles Cain

Charles has volunteered much of his time to local professional organizations such as PMI Nashville, Music City Agile and he founded the Middle Tennessee chapter of ACE (Agile Coaching Exchange).

Be sure to register early, this presentation will be top drawer.
