"Traumatized Technology"

Robert Michaels - CEO and Founder, Serve & Protect

Technology plays a role in all walks of life, and trauma is no exception. This month AITP Nashville has the pleasure to welcome Robert Michaels to talk to us on April 11th 2019 at 6pm.

Robert Michaels is the CEO and Founder of Serve & Protect, a non-profit national trauma services organization dedicated to providing education, facilitation, restoration, and advocating for public safety professionals and their families. Based in Brentwood TN, Serve & Protect has facilitated trauma services more than 4,000 first responders, located trauma therapists in their area, taught 45 seminars to Nashville area agencies, and impacted more than 2 million through social media platforms.

Rob served in law enforcement with the 229th Military Police Battalion of the Virginia Army National Guard as well as with Norfolk (VA) Police Department, both on patrol and in the detective bureau.

Rob serves as Chaplain for the FBI Memphis Division, Nashville R.A., and served as Chaplain in Residence for 2 weeks at Quantico. Since 2012 he has served as State Chaplain for Tennessee Fraternal Order of Police and is a Chaplain for Morris Heithcock FOP Lodge 41 in Williamson County TN where he is an active member and held offices on the executive board.

Rob was presented by Congressman Marsha Blackburn when he served as Guest Chaplain for the U.S. House of Representatives September 9, 2015 leading the opening prayer. He is the 2017 recipient of the FBI Director's Community Leadership Award for the Memphis Division, and honored with Tennessee House and Senate Joint Resolutions and Proclamations.

Rob is a member of the American Academy of Experts in Traumatic Stress, and National Center for Crisis Management, and American Legion. He is adjunct instructor for the Davidson County Sheriff's Training division, Williamson County Sheriff's Department Court Officer's Training, and teaches for other public safety organizations. He has been a featured speaker at area civic organizations including Rotary Clubs, Kiwanis, and Shrine Clubs. Rob is also a Circuit Rider for Brentwood United Methodist Church. He is a member of the Brentwood Noon Rotary Club.

Robert Michaels

He holds a B.A. from Columbia International University and a M.A. from Wheaton College (IL). Rob and Chris, his wife of 44 years, live in Brentwood. Their daughter, Dr. Hollyn Marie Michaels, is a clinical psychologist living with her husband Matt and daughter Brynn in Wheaton IL. Their son, DJ, is an RN at Vanderbilt working in the Cardiovascular Intensive Care Unit.
